

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE silver tea at Mrs. George Harrison's home, No. 407 East Grace Street, this afternoon between the hours of 4 and 7, promises to be a most enjoyable event. Mrs. Clifton Miller and Mrs. Norman Call will be the charming vocalists of the afternoon, and will have as their accompanist Mr. Benjamin J. Potter, assistant of the Royal College of London, England, and lately appointed choir master and organist of the Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Johnston will be assisted in the tea-room by the following society girls and buds: Misses Elizabeth and Mary Davenport, Miss Laura Rutherford, Miss Lillian Binford, Miss Edna Tompkins, Miss Caroline Armstrong, Miss Roberta Trigg, Miss Frances Myers, Miss Parke Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Wheat and Miss Sue McGuire; also by the little Misses Johnston, Ethel Cabell and Nancy Stokes.

Old St. Paul's Church, in the parish of St. James, Northham, is interesting as having had for its rectors three of the most beloved and distinguished Southern bishops—the Rev. Francis Whittle, of Virginia; Bishop Joseph Wilmer, of Louisiana, and Bishop Richard Wilmer, of Alabama. The church rectory, built on land donated by Colonel Bolling, of Bolling's Island, is much in need of repairs, and the Woman's Auxiliary is trying to make it comfortable for the present incumbent, the Rev. David Henry Lewis, of Ivy, Albemarle county, who, although recently ordained, is well known for his work during former vacations in the Ragged Mountain Mission, and at Dumfries, as a seminarian, during the winter.

All visitors and residents in the city are cordially invited to attend the tea.

Nurses at Convention.

Captain B. S. Ker presided at the opening session of the Graduate Nurses' Convention held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall at Staunton, Va., on Tuesday night last. The Rev. Dr. G. F. Gregory, of the First Baptist Church, offered the invocation and Mayor W. H. Landes, introduced by Captain Ker, made the address of welcome. An excellent paper on "Tuberculosis Work," written by Miss Helen, La Motte, of Baltimore, was followed by an open discussion in which several local physicians took part.

The second day's meeting was held at the Elks' Home, in the Crowle Building. A paper prepared by Miss M. C. Dean, on the problem of the trained nurse was read by Miss Elizabeth Cocke, of this city, and elicited

WILL ARREST MEMBERS

New Ordinance Giving That Power to Sergeant-at-Arms to Round Up Quorums

So much trouble has been experienced here of late in rounding up a quorum for different committees that a ordinance will be introduced in Council authorizing the sergeant-at-arms to find and arrest members and bring them bodily to the City Hall. Of course, they will not be brought dead or alive, for in the former condition they would not be able to talk or vote. Those members who attend regularly are rather sore on those who seldom attend and who apparently take no interest in municipal affairs.

GOVERNOR GOES TO EXPOSITION

MR. BRAXTON LOVES HIS NATIVE LAND

He and Mrs. Swanson to Tender Pennsylvania Party Reception To-Night.

AT WILLIAMSBURG TO-MORROW

Will Attend Services at Bruton Parish Church—Capitol Notes.

Declares They Are Leading Europeans by Three Hundred Years.

Governor and Mrs. Swanson left yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the Jamestown Exposition, and will participate in the ceremonies incident to Pennsylvania Day, which is to-day. To-night they will give a reception to the Pennsylvania party at the Virginia Building, and will come up to Williamsburg to-morrow to attend the services at old Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, which will be conducted in connection with the Episcopal Convention now in session.

Secretary Ben P. Owen, Jr., is at the exposition, and will remain there for several days. He will attend the reception to the Governor of Pennsylvania and his staff and party to-night, and will probably return to Richmond with the Governor. There was little or nothing of interest going on in the executive department yesterday.

Before leaving the city the Governor went over the papers in the cases of Neal, of Virginia, and the other cases, and George Peters, of Patrick, who are asking that their death sentences be commuted to life imprisonment. He will not act finally on either until next week.

Building Roads.

State Highway Commissioner P. St. Julien Wilson is in Pittsylvania county looking after the building of a road from Danville to New Design. Assistant Commissioner George P. Coleman is in Dinwiddie, looking after some road work, and they will both be absent for several days.

Capitol Wilson is pushing ahead with the work of his department, and he will have a good report to make to the General Assembly. The powers of the department will be enlarged and an additional appropriation made next winter, and as both Messrs. Withers and Laster, of the Legislature, it is expected that they will be able to get a considerable sum for road building.

Library Work.

Assistant Librarian Swann and Cataloguer Washington are getting their work in good shape in the library, and are pushing it with all possible speed. The library force is now in perfect harmony, and there are no longer any factions or cliques in the institution. Mr. P. F. Berkeley was busy yesterday shipping traveling libraries to various sections of the State.

The keeping of the library open until 10 o'clock during eight months of the year, beginning October 1st, is very popular, and already many readers are availing themselves of the opportunity it affords. A number of delegates to the Episcopal Convention were callers at the library yesterday.

Brief Capitol Notes.

Orders have been issued from the Adjutant-General's office accepting the resignation of Second Lieutenant J. H. Bonnevillie, of Company D, Seventy-first Infantry, Hampton, and calling for an election of his successor within thirty days.
